

Our regular guests, who come to us from all over Poland and Europe, surely remember the beginnings of the Kutter restaurant - a small room with a dozen or so tables, a fire in the fireplace and an unusual bar made from a real fishing boat. If you add to this a wide selection of delicious dishes, it is no wonder that it was not easy to find a free table in Kutter. Today the restaurant has three rooms, but it has lost none of its intimate character.

We serve fish dishes prepared according to traditional recipes, mostly based on fresh fish straight from our catches. We also recommend our own products (including fish from our smokehouse), meat dishes, grilled dishes, soups and delicious pizza. We do not use semi-finished products or microwaves - everything is prepared on site, just before serving. So please be patient if you have to wait several minutes for your meal.

Time will certainly not drag - guests can see what old Hel used to look like - we have a rich collection of reproductions of pre-war post-cards on the walls.

Some of them are over 100 years old. In the afternoons and evenings you can enjoy live music - we have pianists, music bands and Kashubian bands playing for us.

And if you enjoyed your stay in Hel, we will tell you what to do to come back next year. By the stairs leading to the room upstairs there is a wooden sculpture of a fisherman holding his trophy in his hands - a giant salmon. Just touch the fish's tail and make a wish - it will come true for sure. See for yourself!
